IN DEDICATION

CARL W. HOLL
B.A., M.Sc., Ph.D.
Ohio State University

Flung across our land are monuments commemorating the soldiers and statesmen who helped make our nation great. But statues of mere stone and plaster will, in time, pass into oblivion. Some monuments, however assume an air of permanence. Such monuments are neither erected on the grassy slopes of cemeteries nor in the dim recesses of city parks, but rather within the hearts of those who are most affected by the individual.

The staff of the 1959 - 60 Aurora can add little to the construction of a monument to a man devoted to the highest principles of his profession . . . to a man whose personal contacts with students emanates warmth and ingenuity. He has erected his own monument Carl W. Holl.

FACULTY

FACULTY MEETING

A. BLAIR HELMAN
B.A.; M.A.; D.D.
McPherson College

The responsibility, both direct and indirect, for the general welfare of the entire student body of a college is a big one. Manchester's president A. Blair Helman has more than proved his capability in this job. His Christian dedication, his executive skill, his unswerving good judgment, and, most of all, his interest in our problems show him to be no mere figure-head but a real and accessible friend to all who have known him.
